

GAME, SET, MATCH—THE GREENBRIER

The grass court at The Greenbrier Resort in White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia, circa 1890 hosted the likes of early tennis legends such as Bill Tilden and Bryan “Bitsy” Grant for high spirited matches of “lawn tennis”. Today, tennis at The Greenbrier remains as lively—and competitive—as ever, made so by state-of-the-art facilities, skilled instructors and the special touch of touring professionals who stop by to offer expertise and personalized guidance.

For tennis aficionados, The Greenbrier experience is unparalleled. As our guest on previous occasions, you know of the historic allure, abundant natural beauty and host of amenities that serve to define your stay at The Greenbrier. Now imagine that as your signature lifestyle, the way you go about each day, pursuing the activities you love in the serene setting that only an ageless property like The Greenbrier can inspire.
